

Supplementary Figure S6. Ecological and socio-economic characteristics of assessment areas, including a) percent coverage of different habitat types in each assessment area; b) ratio of fish run length to assessment area, c) percent of population with less than high school education, less than proficient english, or minority in each assessment area; d) population density; e) percent of population working or in vulnerable age groups (over 65 or under 5); f) percent of population working in key industries in each assessment area. Clusters are ordered left to right from approximately northernmost to tip of Cape Cod.

